Upcoming Chapter Events to remember

Chamber Breakfast

The monthly Chamber breakfast will be on Tuesday, November 20 at the Green Valley Restaurant in Irvington. State Senator Carroll Gibbons, R-Leitchfield and State Representative Dwight Butler will discuss the General Assembly session scheduled to begin on January 8. Registration begins at 7:00 a.m. and the breakfast will be served at 7:30 a.m. (all times CST)

Open House

The Chamber will hold an open house in December to allow members, citizens and officials to see the renovation work that has been done to the office. Details will follow when they become available.

Receive the newsletter electronically

The Chamber has started to send "The Wired" by email. The plan is to mail "The Wired" to those who do not have email or due to company restrictions must have a mailed copy. Otherwise you will receive your copy by email thus allowing you to share it with others within your organization. The Chamber feels this will save time and money for the Chamber. Please if you are not currently receiving emails from the Chamber contact the office either at 270-756-0268 or send it to chamber@breckirndigecountychamberky.com.

Executive Director Sherry Stith on the left and President Dave Scholenbachler, who is scary enough in real life, hand out treats to little goblins on Halloween. Students from both HES and St. Romuald participated.

Community Happenings

The Breckinridge County Clothesline of Quilts Project Committee is happy to report that there are 15 quilt blocks hung in Breckinridge County with 2 more waiting to be painted. They have a brochure showing some of the locations in Breckinridge County and will be working on one to show all the locations in the county to promote visitation. Katie Alexander, Extension Agent, Sherry Stith, Chamber Executive Director and Tom and Joyce Wheatley attended the ABC Quilt Alley in Ashland, KY on November 2& 3. They enjoyed a tour of the Ashland area to see all their quilt blocks. They also had the privilege to meet Donna Sue Groves, the lady who started the Quilt Project and her mother Maxine Green Groves whom it was meant to honor. The local committee would like to encourage businesses and individuals to support this tourism project. Kentucky is among the 41 percent of the states that are participating in this project. For more information on how to support this project contact Katie Alexander, 270-756-2182 or Sherry Stith, 270-756-0268
